APRIL 2017

MISSION OF FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

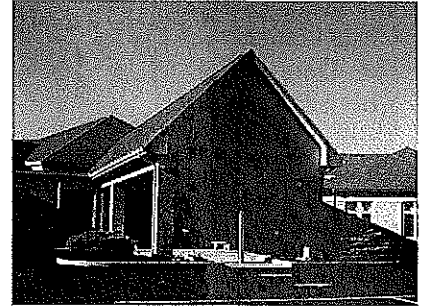

The mission of this Congregation shall be—

To lead people to faith in Jesus Christ.

To encourage their active commitment to His service.

To facilitate their growth in grace and in the knowledge of Christ.

Further, it shall be our mission to work for the unity of all Christians and to participate in the common task of building the Kingdom of God.

My hope for the month of April is that I become more settled. As the new minister at this church my transition has been much easier than I expected. All the preparations that have taken place at the parsonage and at the office have made me feel truly welcome. Not all my things are here yet. My family has not visited yet to see where I live and to meet the people who will be my church family in the coming days, and yet it's beginning to feel like home.

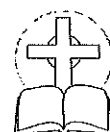

My hope for life at church is similar. I hope to enter lightly into your way of doing things here at FCC, and in concert with our leaders begin exploration of our vision and God's vision for our future. Plans are underway for Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Sunday. Lenten Lunches at rotating churches is proving to be a truly edifying experience. I hope you all will participate in as many of these events as you possibly can.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank the ladies of the church for the welcome basket. All the items are truly appreciated. I was not expecting this loving gesture. I am grateful also to all the people like Susie Strayer and the Trustees who worked fast and hard to make my dwelling more beautiful than it was before. You are indeed diligent and caring stewards of what you have been entrusted with.

I hope to spend most mornings in my office familiarizing myself with the work that awaits. My hope is that you will stop in for a chat when you can and help me get to know you better and ask me whatever questions you may have. I am also curious about Paulding and will have questions about what to expect of life in the coming months.

As I work on finding my way around everything: the area in general, the neighborhood, the church chancel—I ask for your patience and understanding. I will be depending upon you to help me become established. My prayer is that my roots grow deep here, my tenure long, and my work a labor of love. We want the people who we serve to trust this church and to depend upon us to be a constant and reliable source of spiritual nourishment.

May your Lenten journey be blessed!

Easter's Dawn

On the third day, the friends of Christ coming at daybreak...found the grave empty and the stone rolled away. In varying ways they realized the new wonder; but even they hardly realized that the world had died in the night. What they were looking at was the first day of a new creation, with a new heaven and a new earth; and in a semblance of the gardener, God walked again in the garden, in the cool not of the evening but of the dawn.

JESUS IS RISEN!

When Jesus' disciples saw that the stone was rolled away from his tomb, they knew he had risen. Make a moveable tomb to celebrate Easter.

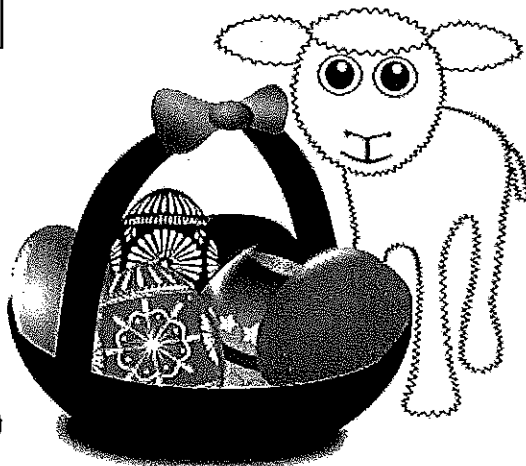

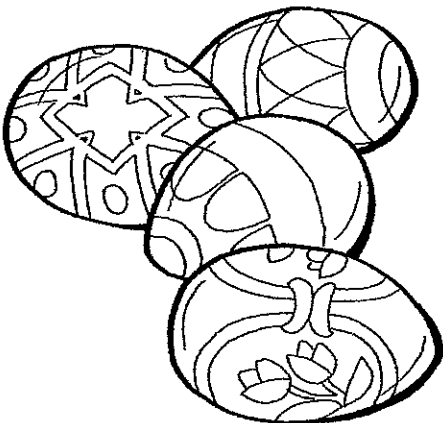

What you need:

- 4 pieces of paper (brown, blue, black, yellow)
- Scissors
- Pencil
- Glue stick
- Brad fastener
- Marker

What you do:

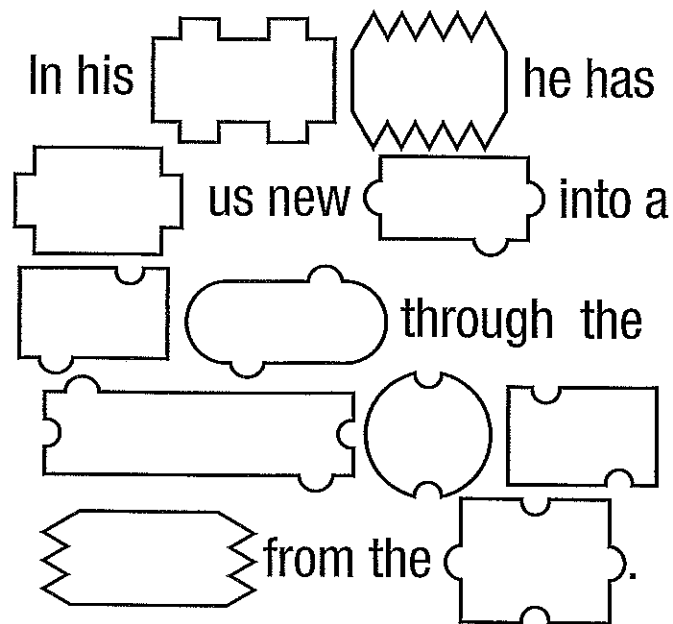

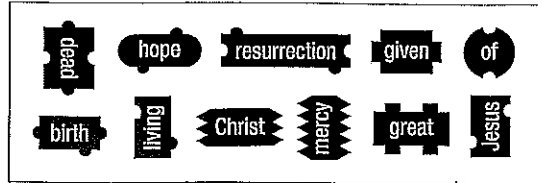

1. Fold the brown paper in half, short side to short side. Cut along the fold. On one half, draw and cut out a large half-circle (the tomb). On the other, draw and cut out a palm-sized circle (the stone).
2. Glue the brown tomb onto the blue paper.
3. Cut a black circle (the inside of the tomb) the same size as the brown stone and glue it onto the brown tomb.
4. Place the brown stone over the black half-circle; this is the entrance. Push the brad through one edge so the stone can move from side to side.
5. Cut out a cross from the yellow paper and glue it by the tomb.
6. Write "Jesus is risen!" atop the blue paper.

> NEW LIFE <

How did God work through Jesus to give us new life at Easter?

Directions: Use the puzzle pieces from the box to complete 1 Peter 1:3, NIV.

1 PETER 1:3, NIV

Answer: In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. 1 Peter 1:3, NIV
